Synopsis

Did you know the Pope has an official preacher? One man has been quite possibly the most influential Catholic priest alive today in the world... but many people don't even know his name. Raniero Cardinal Cantalamessa has indirectly created and focused on unity for all those who follow Christ since Saint John Paul II appointed him as the Preacher to the Papal Household in 1980. He has served continuously in this role for over 42 years, preaching Advent and Lent sermons as the longest serving Papal Preacher in history.

Through his joyful love of Christ, Cardinal Cantalamessa has spoken the same Biblically strong messages to Pope Saint John Paul, Pope Benedict XVI, and today's Pope Francis. He is such a humble man quietly shouting such an indispensable message. Be moved with joy while learning about the man who has touched so many hearts across ecumenical lines!
